Chapter 1 by Klaus

The fact that we have to debate that racism does or doesn't exist proves that it does. ---There was a black little girl, Sarah, who met this white little boy named Sam. Sarah and same became friends and when she went to his house to meet his racist mother and abusive father who was also a former slave owner, of course until the Civil War. Of Course Sam wasn't racist because that's something you learn not something you born with and his was only i young child. When Sam's parents saw this little black girl well then..
